Thinking

Creative Thinking

1. Novelty and Value

- I get ideas when I play. My ideas are fun for me and make me happy
- I can get new ideas or build on other people's ideas, to create new things within the constraints of a form, problem, or materials
- I generate new ideas as I pursue my interests

2. Generating Ideas

- I get ideas when I use my senses to explore
- I build on others' ideas and add new ideas of my own, or combine other people's ideas in new ways to create new things or solve straightforward problems
- I deliberately learn a lot about something (e.g., by doing research, talking to others or practicing) so that I am able to generate new ideas or ideas just pop into my head
- I have deliberate strategies for quieting my conscious mind (e.g., walk away for a while, doing something relaxing, being deliberately playful) so that I can be more creative
- I have interest and passions that I pursue over time

3. Developing Ideas

- I make ideas work or I change what I am doing
- I can usually make my ideas work within the constraints of a given form, problem, and materials if I keep playing with them
- I build the skills I need to make my ideas work, and usually succeed, even if it takes a few tries
- I use my experiences with various steps and attempts to direct my future work
- I can persevere over years if necessary to develop my ideas. I expect ambiguity, failure, and setbacks and use them to advance my thinking

Thinking

Critical Thinking
