Kindergarten Physical & Health Ed

Curricular Competencies

		Physical Literacy			Health & Active Living					Social & Community			Mental Well-Being
Big Ideas	*Daily physical activity helps us develop movement skills and physical literacy, and is an important part of healthy living. *Learning about ourselves and others helps us develop a positive attitude and caring behaviours, which helps us build healthy relationships. *Knowing about our bodies and making healthy choices helps us look after ourselves. *Good health comprises physical, mental, and emotional well-being.	Develop and demonstrate a variety of fundamental movement skills in a variety of physical activities and environments	Describe the body's reaction to participating in physical activity in a variety of environments	Develop and demonstrate safety, fair play, and leadership in physical activities	Participate daily in physical activity at moderate to vigorous intensity levels	Identify opportunities to be physically active at school, at home, and in the community	Identify and explore a variety of foods and describe how they contribute to health	Identify opportunities to make choices that contribute to health and well-being	Identify sources of health information	Identify and describe a variety of unsafe and/or uncomfortable situations	Develop and demonstrate respectful behaviour when participating in activities with others	Identify caring behaviours among classmates and within families	Identify and describe practices that promote mental well-being	Identify and describe feelings and worries	Identify personal skills, interests, and preferences
Content	proper technique for fundamental movement skills, including non-locomotor,locomotor, and manipulativeskills including individual and dual activities, rhythmic activities, and games relationships between food, hydration, and health practices that promote health and well-being names for parts of the body, including male and female private parts appropriate and inappropriateways of being touched different types of substances hazards and potentially unsafe situations caring behaviours in groups and families emotions and their causes and effects reliable sources of health information														