

Grade 9 Socials		Curricular Competencies
Big Ideas	*Emerging ideas and ideologies profoundly influence societies and events. *The physical environment influences the nature of political, social, and economic change. *Disparities in power alter the balance of relationships between individuals and between societies. *Collective identity is constructed and can change over time.	Use Social Studies inquiry processes and skills to: ask questions; gather, interpret, and analyze ideas; and communicate findings and decisions	Assess the significance of people, places, events, and developments, and compare varying perspectives on their historical significance at particular times and places, and from group to group	Assess the justification for competing historical accounts after investigating points of contention, reliability of sources, and adequacy of evidence	Compare and contrast continuities and changes for different groups during this time period	Assess how prevailing conditions and the actions of individuals or groups affect events, decisions, and developments	Explain different perspectives on past or present people, places, issues, and events by considering prevailing norms, values, worldviews, and beliefs	Recognize implicit and explicit ethical judgments in a variety of sources	Make reasoned ethical judgments about controversial actions in the past and present, and whether we have a responsibility to respond Content	political, social, economic, and technological revolutions the continuing effects of imperialism and colonialism on indigenous peoples in Canada and around the world global demographic shifts, including patterns of migration and population growth nationalism and the development of modern nation-states, including Canada local, regional, and global conflicts discriminatory policies, attitudes, and historical wrongs physiographic features of Canada and geological processes								